Citizens Advice Leeds

Citizens Advice Leeds is a local charity working for a fairer society and the relief of poverty. We help individuals, families and communities by:

- Empowering people to exercise their legal and human rights and
- Campaigning for policy solutions to prevent and combat poverty and injustice

Citizens Advice Leeds is the largest provider of free and independent advice in the city, helping over 30,000 people a year through telephone, online and face-to-face services delivered at over 20 locations citywide. We have around 60 employees and 60 volunteers at any time.

Our key objective over the last five years has been to make it easier for more people to get the advice they need, doubling the number of people we help and making it easier for people to contact us by phone, email or in person. Our commitment to access and quality means that:

- We consistently achieve good and excellent scores in quality of advice assessments.
- We provide access to justice for people most at risk of social and financial exclusion, e.g.
 - o We deliver advice sessions in mental health services, GP surgeries, and children's centres and provide free access to interpreters;
 - o 32% of our clients are from racially minoritised groups;
 - o 49% of our clients have a disability or long term health condition.
- We consistently demonstrate standards of excellence across all areas of governance, management, equalities and operational management.

Citizens Advice

Citizens Advice Leeds is one of nearly 300 local organisations who are members of Citizens Advice. Citizens Advice is a national charity with a variety of responsibilities including:

- Regulating quality standards in the Citizens Advice service and supporting local citizens advice offices
- Advocating policy change based on evidence gathered from the service
- Managing the consumer advice service
- Co-ordinating Witness Services delivered in local courts.

The application process

- You will find details about our vacancies and how to apply on our website www.citizensadviceleeds.org.uk on the Working for us page. On this page you can download:
 - Job descriptions for current vacancies
 - Application form
 - Diversity monitoring form
- When you have filled in the application form please email it to us at jobs@citizensadviceleeds.org.uk
- You can also send your completed diversity monitoring form to jobs@citizensadviceleeds.org.uk .
- If you are shortlisted for a role we will contact you to invite you to an interview. Interviews are carried out by a panel of 2-3 people and are usually face-to-face. Interviews may be carried out online if necessary.
- We may also ask you to undertake an exercise as part of the assessment process. This could include providing answers to case studies for advice roles, making a presentation for a management role, or other appropriate activity.
- Following the interview process you will be contacted to inform you if we are making an employment offer or not. This verbal offer will be followed by a written confirmation subject to the receipt of satisfactory references and completion of ID and other checks as required for the role.
- Verbal feedback will be offered to candidates who are unsuccessful at the interview but we do not provide written feedback.

Application form

Complete the application form and return it by post or email no later than the closing date referred to in the advert. If you return your application via email there is no requirement to send a hard copy in the post.

CVs will not be accepted as a substitute for the application form, unless specifically stated in the advert.

The application form plays a key part in our recruitment and selection process. We use the information you provide about your skills, experience, career and education history to decide whether or not to invite you for an interview. It is important that you complete the application form as fully and accurately as possible, ensuring that you give specific examples which demonstrate how you meet the criteria for the role for which you are applying.

Please provide one example for each criterion. Choose examples of past experience that clearly demonstrate what we are looking for, and be precise about what you did, how you did it and the outcome or result of your actions. Provide recent work examples wherever possible but examples from other aspects of your life such as voluntary work, school or college experiences, can also be given.

Disability Confident Employer

As an organisation that values equality, fairness and diversity, Citizens Advice Leeds encourages applications from candidates from all backgrounds. We are a Disability Confident Employer and signatories to the Mindful Employer Charter.

We commit to invite to interview all disabled applicants who meet the minimum (essential) criteria for the role. To opt into this scheme, please tick the relevant box on the application form. The essential criteria for the role are shown in the person specification. Please let us know if you have any access or adjustment needs as part of the recruitment process.

If you are invited to an interview we will ask you about any access needs or adjustments to the interview/assessment process that you may need. Please be assured we will be supportive in discussing reasonable adjustments with you at any stage of the recruitment process, although we cannot guarantee to be able to meet all requests.

Shortlisting outcomes

Shortlisted applicants will be invited for an interview. Some positions may require additional assessments (practical task/test or assessment centre) and information on this will be provided if you are invited to interview.

Entitlement to work in the UK

A job offer will be subject to confirmation that you are permitted to work in the UK in accordance with the provisions of the Asylum and Immigration Act 1996. If you are invited to an interview you will be asked to provide evidence of your entitlement to work in the UK at that time.

Diversity Monitoring

Citizens Advice Leeds encourages and welcomes applications from suitably skilled candidates from all backgrounds. Monitoring recruitment and selection procedures is one way of helping us to ensure that there is no unfair discrimination in the way that we recruit people. To do this we need to know about the diversity profile of people who apply for posts at Citizens Advice Leeds. This information is given in confidence for monitoring purposes only and is not seen by anyone responsible for making recruitment decisions.

However, if you would prefer not to answer any of the questions we ask, please leave them blank.

References

All job offers are subject to the receipt of two satisfactory references. One should be from your current or most recent employer (or your course tutor if you have just left education). The other should be someone who knows you in a work related, voluntary or academic capacity. Both referees should be able to comment on your suitability for the role. References will only be taken up for successful candidates following interview.

Criminal convictions

Anyone who applies to work within Citizens Advice Leeds will be asked to disclose details of unspent convictions during the recruitment process.

Having a criminal record will not necessarily bar you from working for Citizens Advice Leeds but we are not able to employ anyone with a conviction for a sexual offence against a child or vulnerable adult regardless of when the offence took place. All other convictions will be considered on an individual basis.

Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) disclosures are only requested where proportionate and relevant to the post concerned. If the post for which you are applying requires a DBS disclosure, this will be noted in the application pack.
